This Committee responds to the March 12, 2015 FEC RFAI, with a response due on April 16, 2015 as follows: This committee exercises its best efforts to report the complete identification of all contributors whose contributions aggregate in excess of $200 in a calendar year. First, this Committee makes a clear and conspicuous request for this information in all solicitations and means of contribution, including as a required field for online contributions. Secondly, where a contributor has not provided that information or provided inadequate information, Committee policy is to communicate with all such contributors, at any dollar amount, on a monthly basis to request the missing information. This request is not made in the form of a solicitation, and explains to the contributor that to comply with federal election law, the Committee is required to make its best efforts to obtain and report each contributors name, address, name of employer and occupation. Third, if the contributor responds and provides the requested missing information, this information is added to the contributor's personal information and reported on the next regularly scheduled FEC Report or, an appropriate amendment is filed to a prior report. At this time, the Committee has not received any additional information for the relevant report. Additionally this Committee has previously amended this report as part of its internal audit procedures to properly correct errors referenced in this RFAI and related to internal contribution processing that resulted in the incorrect designation and reattribution of several contributions. These contributions have been properly designated or attributed were necessary. As part of this process this Committee has removed several duplicate contributions resulting from 48 hour reporting. With respect to item 3, the Committee received the contribution as an earmarked/conduit contribution from the Senate Conservatives Fund and relies on that Committees internal verification procedures for earmarked contributions forwarded to the Committee. The Committee does acknowledge that this contributor routinely makes contributions to conservative organizations from a United States address.
